

Savoy Hotel
Embankment Gardens
London

September 21st 1899

My dear Mrs Macmillan,

I was delighted to get your letter of the 11th inst. I was exceedingly sorry not to be able to get up during our sojourn in Galloway, but I could not think of landing a whole pack of children on you, knowing also that it was your busy month.

I am, however, collecting my Galloway papers into a volume, which will entail several journeys to the South during this year and next. You may be sure I shall not pass the Glen. Indeed I look forward with great hope to seeing you before very long.

With kind and affectionate regards to you both

Very truly yours

SRC

PS - No 'teuch' have for the above!