Dear Watt,

Tell the Northern Syndicate that I shall be glad to write for them one story of 6000 words or two of 3000 words each as they may prefer. (I'll really just cut a larger one into two)

They wrote me asking me to do an article on current topics. Tell them that I can't do these things. They are getting a bit of a nuisance. I've had three or four letters from them.

Will you be in London in the first week of September? I should much like to have a private talk with you then if possible.

Ever yours,

S.R. Crockett
