

Letter from A.P. Watt to Percy Clarke
Hastings House

December 3rd 1901

Dear Mr Clark

Just a line in confirmation of our conversation of yesterday morning to say that I regret the arrangements which we have made for the publication of Mister Crockett's new novel Flower of the corn in America do not permit us agreeing to your beginning the serial publication of the story in this country earlier than on the date already arranged. Vis: the first Thursday in May next.

I am

your sincerely AP Watt.
