Dear Mr. Joyce,

I am in receipt of your two notes of yesterday's date.

I shall look forward to hearing from you in reference to serial stories, some time towards the end of next week.

I note with pleasure that you have decided to accept Mr. Crockett's offer of the British serial rights for use in "The Graphic" of a new short story of 10,000 words in length as a settlement of your claim arising from the fact that "The Red Axe" was between nineteen and twenty thousand words short.

Believe me,

Dear Mr Joyce

Yours sincerely

AP Watt
