THE QUICKENING OF CALIBAN.

A MODERN STORY OF EVOLUTION.
 By J. COMPTON RICKETT,
 Author of 'The Christ that is to be.'

"Mr. Compton Rickett must be congratulated alike on the daring conception and the skilful execution of his book. A style at once simple and powerful lends distinction to 'The Quickenings of Caliban,' and the story itself is one of strong interest.....A weirdly attractive story, cleverly imagined and vigorously told."—Speaker.

"Brimful of meaning, suggestion, and fine satire."
Academy.

"There is a good deal of good workmanship in the book."
Bookman.

"The daring theme is justified by the deft way in which Mr. Rickett has carried out his task."—Public Opinion.

CHEVRILLON (A.). — SYDNEY SMITH et la RENAISSANCE des IDÉES LIBÉRALES en ANGLETERRE au XIX^È SIÈCLE. 1 vol. in-16, broché, 3 fr. 50.
 Dans une monographie écrite d'un style à la fois précis et coloré, M. Chevrillon fait revivre avec son héros Sydney Smith toute cette pléiade de whigs qui occupèrent la première moitié de ce siècle, champion infatigable des idées libérales qu'il défendit dans la suite avec admiration par les Lettres de Peter Pindley, toujours au début de sa vie, parvint enfin aux plus hautes dignités de l'Eglise anglicane, eut la satisfaction d'assister au triomphe complet de son programme politique, c'est-à-dire à l'émancipation des catholiques (1829) et à la réforme électorale (1832). La lucidité de ses vues et les modes d'un humor irrésistible lui avaient assuré une influence prépondérante sur l'opinion publique. C'est en somme, à défaut de celle d'un publiciste de génie, l'histoire d'un parvenu du bon sens, de l'honnêteté et de l'esprit pratique.

S. R. CROCKETT'S NEW STORY.—SECOND EDITION.

The RAIDERS. By the Author of 'The Stickit Minister,' &c. Crown 8vo. cloth, gilt top, 6s.

"The new Barrie of yesterday is to-day a second Stevenson—and no bad second, let us make haste to add.....Mr. Crockett writes exceedingly well—crisply, vividly, and above all readably. His Scotch is delightful, and frequent, though somewhat capriciously distributed, pathetic translations smooth the thistly path for the Southron. He has a keen sense of humorous character."—Daily Chronicle.

"It is safe to say that this tale of the Galloway of the early part of last century will bring Mr. Crockett at a bound in the front rank of those writers of the day who may be said to have founded among them a new school of Scottish romance. 'The Raiders' is alive and throbbing with the Gallowegian spirit; the strong and wholesome air of the hills and seas of the Stewartry blows through it."—Scotsman.

A NEW NOVEL BY A NEW WRITER.

A MODERN HERETIC.

THE STORY OF A SCHISMATIC.

A NOVEL WITH A PURPOSE.

Crown 8vo. cloth, Five Shillings.

Dr. H. F. HORTON says:—"A more merry, wholesomely sunny book it has not been my lot to read from any of our living authors. In addition to the humour, there is a constantly occurring felicity of phrase which reminds one of George Meredith."

Glasgow Herald.—"A very remarkable and distinguished book. The author has done for the Oxford of 1850 something like what Mrs. Humphry Ward did for the Oxford of a later generation, but in place of a revolt from Christianity, we have only a revolt from Anglicanism as the momentary type of the search after truth, and thus we are spared such a portentous endeavour as the New Brotherhood."

THE REPUBLIC as a FORM OF GOVERNMENT;
 Or, the Evolution of Democracy in America.

By JOHN SCOTT, of Farquhar.
 Post 8vo. pp. 323, 7s. 6d.

We have in this book a criticism by one of its citizens of the government of the United States. It invites attention now when a change is threatened in the British Constitution which would turn it into a Republic. It may be well to look before we leap. The author says of his work:—"It is an examination into the working and principle of the government of the United States....An humble contribution to the safe government which a democratic revolution endangers the stability of Europe."—Extract from the Introductory.

OLIVER WENDELL HOLMES ON A GOLD PEN.

Boston, September 17, 1878.

MESSRS. MABIE, TODD & BARD.

Sirs,—I have sent one of your Pens to have a point mended through Messrs. Hooker, Lewis & Co., of this city. You may like to know that I have used this Pen constantly for more than TWENTY YEARS, from the days of a book of mine called 'The Autocrat of the Breakfast Table' (1857-8) until last Friday without repair, and always with perfect satisfaction. I have written with it half-a-dozen or more volumes, a large number of essays, &c., and thousands of letters. I feel to it as to an old friend, and I hope you will do the best you can for it, though I have in the mean time bought another of your make—"corrugated," marked C. I do not know whether YOU care for this testimonial, but I feel as if THE PEN which has carried out so much of my thought, and brought back so much in various forms in return, was entitled to this certificate of honourable service.

I am, Gentlemen, yours truly,
 OLIVER WENDELL HOLMES.
