Dear Mr Unwin,

Re poems and verses, as I told you I was not very keen on issuing just now; but Over of Ruby who brought out Normal Gale and prints le Galliennes' books has written to me about them. He wants me to let Elkin Matthews do a little book – handmade paper 120pp just 80, limited edition sort of thing. If you don't think they would do for the Cameo series, would you mind asking your forwarding clerk to send them back to me. I would rather the Cameo had them for it is a delightful thing, but I would not care for them out of a kind of [] of some kind. I can quite see that verse is not in your way, still if you care for them, you can have them.

I don't expect you will think of it but I owe it to your kindness to make you the first offer. By the way Wylie, who has just been here, would I have no doubt help with the sales.

The revise of the 'Stickit' is well through. I don't think there is much to alter.

Kind regards

Ever SRC
