March 11th

Dear Unwin,

I have the enclosed telegram from Burn-Murdoch of whom I wrote that his drawings had not come to time. If they have not arrived yet, you will I daresay know what to do better than I. His address is W.C. Burn Murdoch, University Settlement, Riddles Close, Lawnmarket, Edinburgh.

I am nearly out of my copies of The Raiders – I suppose the rest will come. We had a very pleasant afternoon with old Bret Harte yesterday. Today Barrie is coming, I am sorry I am engaged tonight with him.

Ever yours
