

Letter from A.P. Watt to T. Heath Joyce
Hastings House

Strand, W.C.
26th July 1899

Dear Mr. Joyce,

I have the pleasure of informing you that I have now heard definitely from Mr. Crockett that, so far as he is concerned, there is no objection to your postponing the publication of his story from the first to the second six months of the year 1901, provided as Mr. Crockett says, that the price be paid as arranged "half and complete delivery, and the rest during the course of 1900."

I am yours sincerely

Watt
