

Bank House,
Penicuik,
Midlothian.
May 16th 1900

Dear Dr. Wright,

I am much obliged to you for the splendid instalment of the Dialect Dictionary. I have been looking at it all the morning with delight. I am sure it must have cost you an infinity of labour generously and ungrudgingly given. I beg to enclose my cheque for £3 – 3 - 0 being my own and Mr Milner's subscription for the year.

With kind regards

Yours faithfully

S.R. Crockett

for R.M.C.