

30th June 1911

Dear Crockett

I am just in receipt of a letter from Missus Doubleday page and Co in which they write. We are very sorry... Firebrand, Flower of the corn... the plates [see letter]

I take it you do not wish to buy Messrs double Day & Cos plates and this being so I propose if you approved to say that they can melt them up subject to all rights of printing and publishing your books reverting to you whenever they have sold off the remaining stock with kind regards

I am dear Crockett

your sincerely.

APW.