Dear Mr Weekly,

Please get me a spare copy of T.J and J Smith's Quarto Diary (28A) bound in red basil. I don't care whether the current year or not. I find them the only note books which don't wear out. I would be glad to take half a dozen copies of 28A and of the companion Octavo size (5C) off the publishers hands at a reduced rate. Ask them.

Faithfully yours

SR Crockett
