

The Lochinvar Hotel.

Dalry, Galloway

July 3. 1894.

Dear Unwin,

The drawings reproductions are exceedingly satisfactory. And the book should be a very beautiful one. I shall set to work immediately.

I am wearying to see Mad Sir U. We stay here till Saturday. If you have a copy ready, you might send one here. You had better send 5 dozen to Penicuik. (Note for the [] of your young men who say: 'im, 'un, 'e is always wantin' summat'!!

You might have a copy put in vellum for old Masson (Dedicatee)

ever yours

SRC.

(with illustrations and note 'beautiful country, Ken windings thus white farmhouses black bull that object to fishers)