

May 27th 1893

Dear Mr Watt,

I would like you to be my agent in all literary and financial matters thereto appertaining, and shall place all my writings henceforward in your hands except only my journalistic matter for The Christian Leader and the weekly lesson in the 'Sunday School' which is reported from my Sunday morning children's sermon. I shall also refer all applications for work to you, and generally you shall have the management of my literary and financial affairs, charging me your usual commission of 10%

Yours very truly

SRC