

(Savoy Hotel)
Embankment Gardens
London
Jan 20th 1899

Dear Mr Sutton,

I am obliged to you for your kindness in the matter of the "Pirate" books. I should be very glad to have "Adventures of a Younger Son" which you kindly mention. I have, of course, some of the books you report, but I should like to see four of them which I have noted on slips you sent me. Would you be kind enough to send them to me at 10, Clevedon Place, Eaton Square, London. I will let you know about them after I have had a good look at them.

With kind regards, and many thanks,

Yours faithfully,

S.R. Crockett