

Bank House
Penicuik
1 Aug 1896.

Dear Sirs,

I am sorry I have nothing I can give you in exchange for "Without Prejudice" - which I think was one of my earliest stories, supplied to you at a special rate. I am writing very few short stories at present, finding it better to confine myself to longer books.

Faithfully yours,
S.R. Crockett