My dear John,

I was delighted to hear from you and know that you like the Grey Man. You will like it more when Marion reads it to you from end to end. I am still hoping to get to Galloway for a few days. 'When' is the question. Before long I hope. All the same, I seem to get more and more pressed for time as things move forward – I have not forgotten the Glen, or the kind folk at the head of it. My love to you both.

With kindest regards and good wishes for a New Year

Ever truly yours
