

Bank House

29 August 1896

My dear Unwin

I think the prospectus of The Grey Man is all right and for the frontispiece either the Headsman and his assistants as in the prospectus or the picture entitled 'Kate sat beside me on a stool and leaned an elbow on the oak's edge.' I can't think of any advertising line at present, but as soon as a few good reviews come in it might be well to put a good ad in the Scotsman and the Glasgow Herald as we did in the case of the Sunbonnet. I hope to see you in September. I shall be up about the middle of the month.

with kind regards

faithfully yours

SR Crockett

PS would you kindly print an extra two dozen of the large paper edition of format and I should like three copies bound in a vellum something like the last.