

FCM.
May 9 1893.

Dear Sir,

I want the italic dedication to remain where it is. And the letter declaratory to follow. It is a different thing altogether, and the 2nd paragraph explains why it is there. The dedication must be kept to give that sentence meaning. Please let me see author proof before you print off. It needs careful handling.

Yours very truly.

SRC.