

Bank House

6th March, 1897

My Dear Unwin

I have been far afield since I saw you. Also under the weather with influenza, but now I am about and at work again.

Many thanks for sending the note about Lochinvar. I fancy Watt arranged the publication of that some years ago but it won't be for 9 months yet.

with kind regards

faithfully yours

SR Crockett.